

17-53-210 Dividing county into precincts and districts.

A county legislative body may divide the county into precincts, districts, or other entities as permitted or required by law, and may change them and create others as convenience requires.

Renumbered and Amended by Chapter 133, 2000 General Session